From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "What to Expect During Eucharistic Exposition"

This coming Friday, the First Friday of September, we will begin our monthly Eucharistic Holy Hour. Last week, I wrote about the general reasons and benefits of spending an hour with our Eucharistic Lord. This week I would like to say a little about what to expect during our Holy Hour.

There are several different ways in which Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction can be done. I have decided that we will be having our Holy Hour at 5 PM (in St. Casimir's), that we will have our Exposition during the celebration of Evening Prayer (Vespers). Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours by which we sanctify the entire day. The Liturgy of the Hours is made up of Morning Prayer (Lauds), Daytime Prayer, Evening Prayer (Vespers), Night Prayer (Compline) and the Office of Readings (Matins). All priests and religious are required to pray the Liturgy of the Hours in their entirety, while permanent deacons are required to say at least to the two "hinged" hours: Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer. However, all the faithful are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours, at least in part, as a means of glorifying God throughout the day.

After the people have gathered, the minister enters in silence, bows to the altar, and then places the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance. The minister will then kneel before the monstrance and incense the holy Eucharist. The minister then goes to the presider's chair and begins by saying, "God, come to my assistance," and all reply, "Lord, make hast to help me. Glory be to the Father," Then an appropriate song is sung.

This is followed by the Psalmody; the reciting of three psalms. Traditionally, the psalms are recited in "choir-style," that is the two sides of the church alternating in saying the verses of the psalm and all repeating the antiphon at the end (for our purposes, the side by the statue of the Blessed Mother will be side 1, and the side by the tabernacle will be side 2).

After the Psalmody, the minister will read the Gospel of the day, and then give a brief homily. This will be followed by a long period of silence. This is when we adore the Lord, present to us in the Eucharist exposed in the monstrance. We bring to Jesus our hearts, with all their hurts, needs, and praise and thanksgiving. We also need to quiet ourselves and give Jesus a chance to speak to our hearts. Remember what St. John Vianney said about what he did during adoration, "I look at Him, and He looks at me."

At the end of this time of silent adoration, all will participate in the Responsory and recite/sing the Cantic of Mary. Then there are intercessions, and the Evening Prayer part ends with all saying the Our Father.

The final part of our Holy Hour is Benediction. The minister again kneels before the monstrance, and incenses the Blessed Sacrament. During this time another appropriate song is sung. The minister then says a prayer, and puts on the humeral veil, takes the monstrance and makes the sign of the cross over the people in silence. As the minister reposes the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle, the Divine Praises (or another appropriate song) is sung/recited, and the minister departs.

That's it. It might seem like a lot of new things, and if you are not used to praying the Liturgy of the Hours, then it will be new. However, it will be a holy time, and you will soon get used to the format of the Liturgy of the Hours. I also plan to have a worship aide printed, so it should be easy to follow along.

Again, we begin our First Fridays Eucharist Holy Hour this coming Friday, September 2 at 5 PM at St. Casimir.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

Aug 28, 2016

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Everyone has a place at God's table.

Jesus always did the most surprising things! The Pharisees were among his most outspoken critics, yet he still accepted their invitations to dine.

Knowing their propensity to be proud. Jesus takes the opportunity to offer a lesson on humility and welcoming others into our lives. This is a wonderful lesson for all of us, especially for us today! We all know, that sometimes, we can be soooo critical and mean.

As disciples of Jesus we look to him as an example of one who reached out to everyone.... with love and compassion. He did not give people "name tags".

American, German, Poor, Rich, Sick, Handicapped and the list goes on and on! How about we look at ourselves and every one else as God's loving children, accepting of everyone! Let's focus on just being loving human beings that are willing to help each other get to Christ.

Everyone has a place with Jesus EVERYONE and shame on us, if we send them away hungry, tired or sad!!

Adult: What if we took this idea to a bigger level? All human beings just want to be happy, healthy and have enough resources to support themselves and their families and be safe. What if we start here and genuinely encourage one another and share our resources so that no one feels rejected?

Child: This means that you need to help also!!
Come on.....we can do it.....

Celebrating Marriage

As a way of celebrating marital fidelity, we publish wedding anniversaries each month. If you are celebrating a wedding anniversary of 5, 10, 15, etc....you are invited to send your name, anniversary year and date of marriage by email to Resurrection2@comcast.net, or submit it in writing to the office by the 10th of the month before.

VIRTUS Ministry Leaders:

Time to update! Please provide a list of the names of those serving in your ministry to Pat Brooks at the Parish Office ASAP. We need their email and what their position is within your ministry. Thank you!

Indoor Walking at Resurrection Parish

Lots of parishioners are enjoying our indoor walking path, we have received lots of good feedback! If you enjoy walking, or if your doctor recommends that you walk daily for your health, and the weather doesn't always cooperate, we have the solution! On extreme weather days, you can come to the parish center and walk the perimeter of the gym floor. We won't use the heat, AC or lights but it will still be better than the outdoors in wind, rain, cold or extreme heat. The sun light coming from the many windows will light your path and you may find some companions there to join you. Twenty laps of the gym equals a little over a mile. The front doors will be unlocked weekdays from 9am to 3pm, enjoy!

New Catholic Cemetery, Diocese of Trenton

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation Program

August 28, 2016 - 22nd Sunday In Ordinary Time

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power! Psalm 98

A Few Reasons to Share Your Faith.

Help Nourish the Faith of Children...

"The most important reason to get involved is so that we can help nourish the faith in children. If we don't get involved, who will teach them and prepare them to be active members in the parish as they grow?"

Meet Wonderful People...

"I have met many wonderful people."
"If all I did was come to Mass, all I would know would be faces in the crowd."
"If you don't have children in the program, it is a great way to meet other spiritual people and become more involved in the activities and community of the parish."

Grow In Faith & Learn...

"The time spent on preparing the lesson is time spent reflecting on your own faith and knowledge." It is very faith enriching for us to look at the weekly readings from a child's point of view.

It is a Rewarding Experience...

"I used to think that I am not the one who should be teaching since I felt that I did not know 'all the answers'. But it really is a learning experience for adults as well as the children. And it's okay to not know some of the answers-you praise them for a good question and tell them you'll return next week with an answer."
You will be amazed at how much you learn.
