From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Being a Commissioned Officer"

Continuing our reflections on Spiritual Combat and being Strong in the Faith, the question may arise, "When did we enlist in the Lord's army?" Some of us who are older may be tempted to say, "at Confirmation," for the preparation for that sacrament used to talk a lot about becoming a "soldier of Christ." In fact, during the Confirmation rite, the bishop used to give each person being Confirmed a light smack on the cheek as a sign of needing to be tough.

However, it was through our baptism that we became enlisted in the Lord's army. In fact, we are not merely an enlisted person, but are a commissioned officer. To be "commissioned" means to be "with a mission," and we have already mentioned that as a disciple of Jesus we share in His mission, to proclaim the Good News to the ends of the earth so to make disciples of all women and men. To be an "officer" means to have an office. In baptism we were given not just one office, but three. We were made Priest, Prophet and King. St. Faustina, in her diary, says that these three offices are really three ways of exercising mercy toward our neighbors: by prayer, word and deed.

To be a Priest means to pray for, intercede for, and make sacrifices for others. A priest walks on the border between heaven and earth. They are friends of God, and friends of the human race. Recall that the last line in the Warrior Ethos is, "I will never leave a fallen comrade." We all know loved ones who are "dead in sin." They may have become so far removed from God that they no longer even seek God in their lives. They are trapped behind the enemies lines. As a commissioned officer in the Lord's army, as a Priest, we have a responsibility conduct some kind of "search and rescue" mission for these comrades. Our Lady of Good Help, the only approved apparition of the Blessed Mother in the United States, said in her message of October 9, 1859, "I am the Queen of Heaven, who prays for the conversion of sinners, and I wish you to do the same." Clearly, praying for poor sinners and lost comrades must rank among the highest priorities in our devotional life.

A Prophet is someone who speaks the word for God, whether it is popular or not. Pope Leo XII said, "Christians are born for combat. It is part of their nature to follow Christ by espousing unpopular ideas and by defending the truth at great cost to themselves." St. Peter charges all Christians to be able to "give a reason for the hope that is in you." Are you ready to give a reason for your hope? This office requires us to be prepared to address people's questions about our Faith. We should have short but impactful statements or quotes that will leave a spiritual mark on people. Yes, this means we need to read about our Faith; catechesis does not end once we are Confirmed. We should always be learning more about Jesus and His Church. We should never allow fear from keeping us from proclaiming the truth of the Gospel. Before we speak we should take a deep breath and ask the Holy Spirit to speak through us in love.

Finally, a King is someone who leads others to God, and a good King is someone who leads by the example of their deeds. A true King puts the welfare of those in his charge ahead of himself, just like Jesus did on the Cross. Jesus told the Apostles, "You want to be great? Then be the slave of the rest" (Mt 20:27-28 and John 13:4-5). Pope St. Pius X, when asked what was needed most to save society, said, "The most necessary thing of all, at this time, is for every parish to possess a group of laymen who will be at the same time virtuous, enlightened, resolute, and truly apostolic."

You are a commissioned officer. Are you ready to do your duty?

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

What is Faith? How would you describe it!

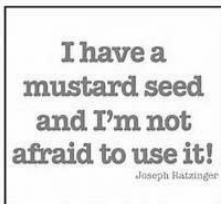

Faith is believing in something, even when you might not be able to explain it in words. It is having trust and believing in something or someone! Our Faith is a gift from God who wants us to trust and believe in Jesus, who is our Savior. God gives us Faith freely, and all we have to do is say yes to receive it! The challenging part comes in when we realize that we have to do something with it!

"If you have Faith the size of a mustard seed.....WOW, unbelievable! The mustard seed is very tiny. Jesus is trying to make a point: all you need is a little bit of Faith and you can accomplish great things. God will hear us, and respond to us, even if we feel very small or feel like we can only do a little bit.

The next part of the Gospel today gives us some guidance on how we can increase our Faith and therefore be able to do even greater things. While it may sound a little confusing, Jesus is essentially reminding his Apostles and us that we are just supposed to do what they, and yes, us, are supposed to do and beyond. Having Faith is more than just believing in someone. It means we have to respond to God's gift in some way. What if we put our faith into action by going to Mass and spreading the "Good News of Jesus Christ" and by serving our fellow human beings in their material and spiritual needs!

Adult: Jesus, let me be a living example, in this world, of your eternal love

Child: Jesus, I can be a peacemaker. I can teach people to speak the truth especially about you.

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation Program

October 2, 2016 - 27th Sunday In Ordinary Time

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. Psalm 95

Prayers of our Children

Please pray for and along with our Faith Formation Children!

I pray for my Aunt that recently passed away. I loved her!

I pray for the family of MLB Pitcher Jose Fernandez.

Dear God, Help the sick and poor to be happy and get what they need. Help me and my friends with our school work.

I pray for all the children that are suffering in the hospital and hope that they get better soon, so they could see their families and go back to school.

To have another surgery. Please help all of these kids who need surgery and need to get better. Thank you, Amen

Jesus, please help my great Aunt with her heart problems.

A note from their Catechetical Leader. The children of Resurrection Parish are a loving, wonderful group of children. I see them in action they are very gracious, generous and loads of fun! Please keep them in prayer as they learn about their God that loves them no matter what! They are our future, be gracious to them! Please show them how loving their Church family can be!

Resurrection Parish is introducing a Home Study Program for parents that have difficulty in making our regular Faith Formation Program. If interested please call Pat at the office. We will be holding a meeting soon!!

Our Children have started to bring up the gifts at our 10am Family Mass on Faith Formation Sunday's!! If you are interested in having your children participate please give Pat a call at the Parish Office! We need to make a schedule

Living for others

When we are confirmed. We receive a special grace by which our faith is deepened and strengthened, so that it will be strong enough not only for our own needs but for the needs of others with whom we shall try to share it.

With the onset of adolescence a child begins to assume, progressively more and more, the responsibilities of adulthood. He begins to see his place in the total family picture and in the community at large.

Similarly, the confirmed Christian begins to see more clearly (or ought to) their responsibility to Christ for our neighbor.

He becomes deeply concerned (or ought to) with the welfare of Christ in-the-world which is the Church! It is in this sense that Confirmation is a spiritual "growing up." SOOOO... we are asking our Confirmation Students from last May to volunteer to do our readings at the 10am Sunday Family Mass. We will schedule time to practice the readings.
