From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Going Weapons H.O.T."

Last week, I reflected on how through our baptism we all became commissioned officers in the Lord's army. That through our offices of Priest, Prophet, and King, we have been committed to proclaiming the Good News and to praying for our comrades in need.

In the military, the command "Go Weapons Hot" means to make whatever preparations are necessary so that when you pull the trigger, something happens. In other words, are we using live ammunition or are we firing blanks?

This is true for spiritual combat as well. As Fr. Heilman wrote in his book, Church Militant Field Manual: Special Forces Training for the Life in Christ, "..., are we making the preparations necessary to ensure that our efforts to combat evil and rescue souls are ignited by the fire of the Holy Spirit? As a Commissioned Officer in the Church Militant, am I imploring God to supernaturally weaponize my prayers (priest), words (prophet), and deeds (king) so that 'I can do all things through Christ Who gives me strength' (Phil. 4:13)? Or am I ignoring His supernatural strength and power and, therefore, firing blanks - 'We've been hard at it all night and have caught nothing' (Lk 5:5)?"

In order to be in the best position to receive God's free offer of supernatural grace, we need to be H.O.T. = Humble, Obedient, and Trusting.

Humility: St. Ignatius of Loyola said, "There is no doubt that God will never be wanting to us, provided that He finds in us that humility which makes us worthy of His gifts, the desire of possessing them, and the promptitude to co-operate industriously with the graces He gives us."

Obedience: St. Josemaria Escriva wrote, "The power of obedience! The lake of Genesareth had denied its fishes to Peter's nets. A whole night in vain. Then obedient, he lowered his net again to the water and they caught 'a huge number of fish.' Believe me: the miracle is repeated each day."

Trust: St. Alphonsus Liguori taught, "He who trusts himself is lost. He who trusts in God can do all things." The confident, trusting soul is like a lightning rod for God's mercy and grace.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Only One Returned to Thank Jesus

All of them were healed! They were no longer unclean. God wants to heal all people, not just those who were Jewish, or those who were Samaritans. However only one person came back to thank Jesus for his miracle. No doubt all ten were very happy they were cured, but why did only one person come back to say "thank you" for his miracle?

God offers everyone a chance to be saved from sin. When we go to God in trust, calling out to him to have pity on us like the ten lepers did, God will heal us from the pain of being shunned by others and lead us to new life in hope to sin no more. When we experience God's loving mercy and forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we are unclean no more. When we enjoy good health, God has blessed us as well. Like the healed Samaritan who returned to thank Jesus, let's not forget to thank God for all our Blessings!

Jesus has great compassion for those who have Faith in Him. How strong is your Faith? Do you remember him on Sunday's, do you pray everyday. Do you introduce others to Jesus Christ! Are you "Christ like" to "lepers in your community? For instance, those in need financially, the sick, the lonely the unemployed.

Adult: Jesus, help me be the person I need to be and not the sinner that I am. I will return to you with a thousand "thank you's"

Child: I am unclean Lord, when I have sinned and when I do not help others in need. Heal me Lord!

Leprosy is not the only thing that severely disfigures and disables a person. Sin does so too.

Pray for the Deceased

Please remember Pauline Schultz in your prayers. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord.

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation Program

October 9, 2016 - 28th Sunday In Ordinary Time

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power. Psalm 98

Prayers of our Children

Please pray for and along with our Faith Formation

Come Holy Spirit, please help me pass my tests and please help me with all of the other stress that I have in my life right now.

God please help me get through these really tough times.

I pray for my family to be safe, healthy and to love each other all the time!

I pray for people that need food and a house to live in.

I pray for my uncle who passed away last week. I pray he is in peace in heaven and that he watches over us to keep us safe and free from harm.

Dear God, can you please help me to see you when I am feeling upset.

Our Children have started to bring up the gifts at our 10am Family Mass on Faith Formation Sunday's!! If you are interested in having your children participate please give Pat a call at the Parish Office! We will need to make a schedule!

Living for others

When we are confirmed, and we practice our Faith as adults, we become aware of all the ministries in our Church.

picture and in the community at large.

It is in this sense that Confirmation is a spiritual "growing up." SOOOO... we are asking our Confirmation Students from last May to volunteer to do our readings at the 10am Sunday Family Mass. We will schedule time to practice the readings and provide a book called the Lector's Workbook. It is a magnificent way to learn how to proclaim God's Word.

Confirmation Coat Drive!

Every year our Confirmation students organize a coat drive for our neighbors in need; so they may have a warm coat for the winter.

Please bring any coats, that are in good condition, that you may have to the Parish Center on Sunday October 23rd at 2pm. The Confirmation students will sort, fold and pack up the coats, as well as finding coats on their own by calling relatives and neighbors. Flyers with more information will be available at church and at the Parish Center before and after Faith Formation
