From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Daily Habits for the Church Militant"

St. Alphonsus Ligouri once said, "Prayer is, beyond doubt, the most powerful weapon the Lord gives us to conquer evil . . . but we must really put ourselves into the prayer, it is not enough just to say the words, it must come from the heart. And also prayer needs to be continuous, we must pray no matter what kind of situation we find ourselves in: the warfare we are engaged in is ongoing, so our prayer must be on-going also."

It is valuable to look at the saints, those heroes in the Faith, to learn how to become the best prayers we can be. Fr. John McCloskey did a study of the great saints to look for the common tools of these champion pray-ers, and he wrote about them in his book, Seven Daily Habits of Holy Apostolic People. Before looking at these seven daily habits, let's look at a few key points. First, just like starting a new exercise program, we should not expect to incorporate these spiritual habits into our lives all at once. Maybe add one every week or two. Second, we need to make a firm commitment, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to make these daily spiritual habits the priority in our lives - more important than meals, sleep, work, and recreation. Third, our prayer life cannot just be "free-styling" and disordered. In order to maintain regular habits of prayer we must be disciplined, scheduling into our day at a time when we are most alert, in a place where we can be silent and free of distractions. Now let's look at the Seven Daily Habits of the Church Militant.

Morning Offering: It is important to start our day by offering up everything we will do for the greater glory of God. Most prayer books have a few versions of such a Morning Offering. Find one that suits you, but try to do it right as you wake up. For extra credit, try never to hit the "snooze" button, but get up as soon as the alarm rings. St. Josemaria Escriva described as conquering oneself from the first moment of the day.

Mental Prayer (15 minutes) : This is simply one-on-one direct conversation with Jesus. If possible, before the Blessed Sacrament.

Spiritual Reading (15 minutes): Of course the best place to start is reading the Bible, but this can also include reading the lives of the saints, as well as the writings of the saints. A visit to our St. Max Library should help you find something good to read. Remember, reading has made many saints.

Daily Mass: I know, this might be a difficult one to do because of your work schedule, but do your best to find a church where you can make daily Mass and still get to work, or where you can go to Mass after work.

Angelus (Regina Coeli during the Easter Season): Just as a good child remembers their mother everyday, we should remember our Heavenly Mother. This is a very ancient Catholic custom to stop what we are doing to greet our Blessed Mother, at 6 AM, Noon, and 6 PM. Sorry, we don't have church bells to ring to remind you like in days of old. I have it set on my watch.

Holy Rosary: Pope Pius IX once said, "Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world." I say it as I go for a walk, and if the weather is bad, the gym in the Parish Center is open Monday through Friday from about 9 AM to 3 PM for walking; 20 laps is about a mile. Let's conquer the world for Christ.

Nightly Examination of Conscience: Just before bed, take a few minutes to review your day by asking, "How have I behaved as a child of God?" It is also a good time to look at our dominant fault, asking our patron saint to assist us with their prayers. Conclude these minutes by praying three "Hail Marys" for purity and then pray the "Act of Contrition."

Practice these Seven Daily Habits and not only will you be winning souls for Christ, but you will also be on your way towards becoming a saint.

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pray Always!!!! Be Persistent!!

Jesus tells his disciples the parable about persistence to encourage us to pray always and to do that without becoming weary. He clearly does not think being persistent is something negative. The parable is very much a story about the widow, the one who asks for what she knows is right and just.

However it is important to note that the judge does not represent God in this story. God does not grant our prayers because he is tired of listening to us!!

Our Gospel is about persistence in prayer. We should pray always; without complaining and without becoming weary. God asks us to pray often, not to wear God down, but to form a closer relationship with God. Just like a friend, you would like to speak with them often; speak to your God often. This way you get to know him better and He gets hear from you often. God is there for you 24 hours a day and will never tire of hearing from you. The joy of prayer is building your relationship with our Lord. Try praying a little more each day, you will be amazed how much calmer you are and you can face adversity with a clear head.

Adult: How do I remember during the day.....use your phone to remind you! It will become a habit very quickly!

Child: God does listen and we will always answer us in a way that is best to us.

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation Program

October 16, 2016 - 29th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. Psalm 121

Young Adults Serving Their Church

When we are confirmed, and we practice our Faith as adults, we become aware of all the ministries in our Church!

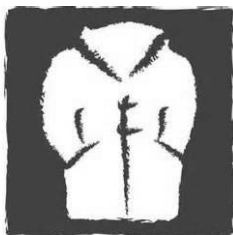

It is in this sense that Confirmation is a spiritual "growing up." SOOOO... we are asking our Confirmation Students from last May to volunteer to do our readings at the 10am Sunday Family Mass on Faith Formation Sunday's. We will schedule time to practice the readings and provide a book called the Lector's Workbook. It is a magnificent way to learn how to proclaim God's Word. What a great way to serve your God

Confirmation Coat Drive!

Every year our Confirmation Class holds group coat drive for our neighbors in need; so they may have a warm coat for the winter.

ONE WARM COAT®

Please bring coats, that are in good condition, to either worship site during the weekend of Oct 22-23. The coats will be sorted and packed by the Confirmandi and taken to Catholic Charities. Flyers with more information will be available at church and at the Parish Center before and after Faith Formation the weekend of October 16th!

Holy Spirit pray for my family to have good health and be safe.

Dear God, I pray for my friend and her family....their Dad died.

Jesus please help my family struggles go away. Thank you for everything you have done for me.

Dear God, I pray for my friend that his fever breaks and he be completely healthy!

Our Children have started to bring up the gifts at our 10am Family Mass on Faith Formation Sunday's!! If you are interested in having your children participate please give Pat a call at the Parish Office! We will make a schedule when everyone is signed up.
