From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Don't Give Up Chocolate for Lent"

We all know that it is coming. Yes, this coming Wednesday, March 1 is Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the season of Lent. And it is a time when we might hear more than once the question, "So, what did you give up for Lent?" I am sure that more than a few of us have given up chocolate, or potato chips for Lent. For the past several years I have given up TV. One year I gave up coffee – boy did I have a headache for the first few days.

While it is certainly laudable to give something up for Lent, do we really understand why we do it? Lent is the season to head into the desert, just as Jesus did, to face our temptations. It is a time for us to take a good look at our lives to see what things might have become disproportioned in our lives. There is nothing wrong with TV, but does it keep me from prayer, from serving people? There is nothing wrong with chocolate, in moderation, but do I eat too much? Am I forgetful of the poor, and those who go hungry? The desert is often seen as a bad place to be, but in the Bible the desert, especially during the Exodus, is the place where the Chosen People were in the best relationship with God. They knew that they needed to depend on God, and they allowed Him to lead them. Through the Prophet Hosea, God calls the Israelites to return to the desert, as it was a place of honeymoon for them.

Maybe we could try something different for Lent this year. Maybe we don't need to give up chocolate for Lent.

We all know the things that make us happy, but we don't always do them. Lent is an opportunity to change that. This year I invite you to do something different. Join Dynamic Catholic for Best Lent Ever, a free email program featuring internationally acclaimed speaker and New York Times best-selling author Matthew Kelly. From Ash Wednesday to Easter, you'll get short, inspirational videos from Matthew Kelly and personal reflections from Dynamic Catholic team members that will help you identify what stands between you and happiness . . . and what to do about it. Are you ready for your best Lent ever? To sign up just go to BestLentEver.com and sign up. It is completely free. Through the reflections you will discover how to open your hearts to God and do more than just give up chocolate, or something else, for Lent. I know I have already signed up.

As your pastor, I also need to remind all of us of the regulations for Lent. Here is what the Catholic Church in the United States asks of us as baptized Catholics:

1. The days of fast (only one full meal) and abstinence (no meat) are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
2. All other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence (no meat). Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast (only one full meal) as above. From the age of 14, people are also obliged to abstain (no meat: this obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat).

The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence is a serious one for Catholics. Failure to observe one penitential day in itself is not considered a serious sin. It is the failure to observe any penitential days at all, or a substantial number of days, which must be considered serious.

The obligation, the privilege really, of receiving the Eucharist at least once a year --- often called "Easter duty" -- for those in the state of grace should still be fulfilled during the period from the First Sunday of Lent, March 5th to Trinity Sunday, June 11th. However, the Church's law does permit this precept to be fulfilled at another time during the year when there is a just cause.

I want to encourage Catholics to get to confession and to make use of the sacrifices and traditions that have always been part of our Lenten practices in the Church. We will have a common Lenten Penance Service with Jesus the Good Shepherd Parish and Corpus Christi Parish on March 22 at 7 PM at St. Casimir church.

We will also have the Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent; at 3 PM at Holy Name church and 7 PM at St. Casimir.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

February 26, 2017
8th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Your Heavenly Father Knows
What You Need!

Most of us are very grateful for our lives. We have good homes, enough food and people who love us and take care of us when needed. But there are times when we worry about things. Sometimes we are sad because we think we would like to have something that someone else has! Or a bigger house or a new car.

If we take care of our needs and don't spend a lot of extra money on things we don't need, we may have enough to share with those who don't have enough. Lent is coming.....this is a good time to set aside those thoughts of yourself and think of those that could use the necessities of life. A car to get to work, needed repairs on a home, food for the table. Instead of getting more for you. Do something for someone in need. A great way to spend Lent. Make a commitment to help others!! Support our Parish St. Vincent de Paul Society!

Why do we have the poor? Because we have not done a good job of sharing our resources. We must work with God to take care of everyone; imagine if everyone shared perhaps we would not have people in need!

Taking care of those in need is our task as children of God. It is in fact how God will judge us if we are worthy to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. We will be judged by how well we have lived as a child of God

Adult: Lord help me remember to do what I have been created to do....to help others. This is a lesson we must learn, God expects us to live and act in a certain way

Child: If we take care of our needs and don't spend a lot of extra money on things we do not need, we have enough to share with those who don't have enough! I got it!!!!

HUNGERING FOR OPPORTUNITY

As we look ahead to our Lenten journey, may our fasting be a hunger for justice, our alms an offering of peace, and our prayers the reflection of humble and grateful hearts. We ask the Holy Spirit to accompany us on this journey of encounter as we spend these 40 days reflecting on what it means to live in solidarity as one global human family. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen. Visit crsricebowl.org for more info...and if you'd like to make a donation, please put it in a plain envelope, mark "Rice Bowl" on it and drop it in the collection. ### New EWTN Show, In Partnership with Susan B. Anthony List, Helps Viewers Create a Culture of Life

EWTN Global Catholic Network, in partnership with the Susan B. Anthony List, will launch a new half-hour weekly program that will inform and educate viewers about current issues of importance in advancing a culture of life.

"EWTN Pro-Life Weekly" will begin airing each week at 11 p.m. ET Fridays, 10 a.m. ET Sundays, and 3 a.m. ET Mondays starting March 3, 2017.

Catherine Szeltner, who was first introduced to viewers as a correspondent with "EWTN News Nightly," will serve as the host for the program. "We want to help viewers become actively involved in the pro-life movement, said Szeltner. "What are the expectations here? What's realistic? What's not? What is Congress debating now? How do we hold our lawmakers accountable for their pro-life promises? Each program will feature a call to action segment that is intended to very clearly give people the steps they can take to become engaged in the fight for life. This is the main vision for the show."

"In addition, said Szeltner, "we will be the authoritative resource for the latest pro-life news. We'll explain what's happened each week, especially as it concerns abortion and assisted suicide. We also want to be a platform for dialogue on confusing questions so viewers can walk away feeling more confident about engaging in the discussion. We'll end with a segment on a group or person who is building up the culture of life."

While abortion and assisted suicide are major concerns, Szeltner says the show will take a "holistic, Catholic approach," which means that the show will focus on pro-life issues in all areas and stages of life.
