From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk

"Christ, Son of God, and Model of Humility"

Last week, I told you that Blessed Dom. Columba Marmion, after having been ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Dublin in 1881, was given permission to enter the Benedictine Abbey of Maredsous in French-speaking Belgium in 1886 taking the religious name of Columba. Life in the monastery was not easy at first. Despite having a French mother, Columba spoke only a little French, so he had to learn French as he made the adjustment from being a diocesan priest to becoming a Benedictine monk. He described his novitiate as being traumatic, but he did make the adjustment, making final profession in 1891.

In the monastery, he took on several duties. He was assigned the assistant novice master in 1899, and when the monastery started a new foundation in the city of Louvain (the monastery of Mont-César), Dom. Marmion was named the prior (in charge of all the temporal affairs). While at Mont-César, Dom. Marmion taught at the Catholic University at Louvain, becoming famous for the retreats that he would give, and becoming a friend of the famous Cardinal Mercier. In 1909, he returned to the Abbey of Moredsous when he was elected Abbot.

While certain that Christ was calling him to be a monk, it clearly was not an easy time for Dom. Marmion. How did he put up with it? He looked towards Christ Jesus as a model of humility. He noted that Jesus never sinned, and had no defect or imperfection in His being which would have given reason for Him to suffer humiliations, yet He did suffer them. Christ was accused of being possessed by the devil. They said that He performed His miracles through Beelzebub, the prince of darkness. He was spat upon, mocked, surged, maltreated, and eventually put to a horrible death. Jesus was the fullness of the Godhead, and possessed all wisdom and knowledge, always doing that which pleased His heavenly Father. Yet He suffered humiliations beyond counting.

Why? So that He could expiate our pride and self-love. Through the humiliations that Christ Jesus endured, He showed us what our humility ought to be.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

March 19, 2017

John 4: 5-15, 19b-26 39a, 40-42

Live for others not just yourself!

The woman at the well is mistrustful of Jesus. He is a stranger to her and not from her part of the country. Even though she keeps challenging Jesus, he does not get distracted. He tells her about the water of eternal life. He says it is for everyone who wants it, including her.

When we are baptized, we receive the Holy Spirit and we have a new life in Christ. We live a Christian life based upon the Jesus' teachings. The living water Jesus gives is not a physical thing to drink, like the water from the well, but a way toward God. This means we don't live only for ourselves but also for others. Yes, Jesus does talk about the living water as something to drink when he is talking with the woman, but he is using the idea of thirst and drinking water metaphorically. When we have the living water, we will have eternal life. We will not be thirsty after Baptism because everything we need to have happiness with God forever is given to us at that Sacrament.

We won't thirst for love because God gives us love!
We won't thirst for comfort, because God gives it to us when we pray!
When we drink from the water of eternal life we are saying that we will no longer thirst for our eternal happiness because God has already given us what we need.

Adult: God acts first in our lives. He calls to us, he invites us. God help me to answer you!

Child: Jesus I need to spend more time in prayer.

Path to Hope

...for those who are addicted, their loved ones and their supporters. A forum for information and a time of candlelight memory for loved ones who are lost in addiction.

Tuesday March 21, 2017 at First Moravian Church, 228 E Washington Street, Riverside, NJ

This event is for addicts and their families who wish to seek ways out of the addiction and isolation. It is sponsored by the interfaith Triple Town Ministerium and Tri-Boro Clergy Association from Riverside, Delran, Delanco, Beverly, Palmyra, Cinnaminson and Riverton NJ. Information will be presented about the scope of the drug addiction problem in our area in an effort to explain addiction and pathways out of the isolation and strangle-hold of addiction for individuals, families and our community. Everyone is welcome to come.

Religion groups represented in this effort are clergy and congregations from many backgrounds and faith including Roman Catholic, Lutheran, Baptist, Methodist, and Presbyterian, Episcopal, Jewish and Muslim.

Will You Take a Baby Bottle... Again??!!

Good Counsel Homes visited Resurrection Parish 3 years ago and will be returning, the weekend of March 25th and 26th to share with you how your support has helped our mothers and babies of our Southern Jersey Home for homeless, pregnant mothers. Our home, open for almost 6 years now has witnessed the birth of 65 babies. We are asking you again to take a baby bottle home with you, and fill it with change, dollars, and checks- whatever your means allow and return it within 2 weeks! Thank you for your support and prayers for our mothers who have chosen to give their baby life. JoAnn DiNoia joann_dinoia@goodcounselhomes

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Prayer Shawl Ministry 4th Annual Display and Fundraiser

Once again the members of the Prayer Shawl Ministry will be displaying shawls on the weekend of April 1-2, 2017. Please stop by our tables at both worship sites and meet some of our members. If you would like a shawl for a family member, friend or acquaintance, one of our members will assist you. We not only make shawls for all occasions, but make small blankets for our newest members at their baptisms. Since we have had many requests for baby blankets, we have begun making those in pastel colors. Donations of yarn, and especially monetary donations to defray the cost of the yarn, are gladly accepted on this weekend. Because of the generosity of our parishioners, we are able to continue our worthwhile ministry.

Catechist/Parents Teaching Our Children

What Makes a Good Relationship With God?
God wants to have a close relationship with you. How does this work? Think about how you relate to your best friends. Most likely, four elements are present.

You know certain things about your friends. They like you and you like them. You do things together. You have fun when you spend time together,

You act like a friend. You behave respectfully, show affection and share your possessions with one another.

You communicate. You share your hopes and dreams with one another. You also share difficult times..

Four Pillars of a Relationship with God.

Four elements are also present in our relationship with God. Think about them as pillars, or columns, holding up a roof.

Creed: What we know about our Faith in God
Sacraments: How we celebrate our faith in God.

The Moral Life: How we live out our faith in God.

Prayer: How we communicate with God.

When you get these pillars in place you will have a strong foundation with God, the most important relationship you will ever have!
