From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "The Disciple's Journal"

Last week I wrote about how we are restructuring the Religious Education program. The goal to emphasize that we are forming disciples -- which is what Jesus commands us to do.

The Disciple's Journal (which I am creating) is meant to be a tool in following Jesus. The New Testament is basically journals of some of the first and closest disciples of Jesus (OK, they were written through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, so they have a Divine authorship too). They are the writings of what those first disciples learned from Jesus and from following Him. The New Testament is what Jesus taught, how the Disciples reacted to His teaching, and then how they tried to put His teaching into practice in their lives so that they could have life more abundantly.

The Church tells us that parents are the first teachers of the Faith to their children. Not only should parents be teaching their children their first prayers (how to make the Sign of the Cross, the Our Father, and Hail Mary), but parents should also be witnessing to their children the importance of their own relationship with Jesus. Children should see their parents praying, talking with Jesus and listening to Him. Through such a witness, children come have their own encounter with Jesus; learning that He loves them, and that He wants them to be happy -- truly and eternally happy.

The most profound way that we encounter Christ Jesus is at the Sunday Mass. The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of the Catholic Faith. So all Religious Education, which is really the formation of disciples, needs to center itself on the Eucharistic Celebration.

For each week of the year, there are four pages in the journal. The first page focuses on the Sunday Mass. There are three prompts for the "disciple on the Way" to write.

"Know" -- Basically this is where you write a summary of the main teaching from the readings. What was the main point in what Jesus said or did?

"Wonder" -- What was your reaction to what Jesus said and did? Did it raise some questions for you that maybe you would like to learn more about? These would be good things to share with your family and/or in class.

"Act" -- How can you apply what Jesus did or said to your own life this week. Did Jesus heal someone after they showed faith in Him? Is there a sick person you can call or visit? How can you show greater faith in Jesus' promise to give us a more abundant life now, and eternal life later?

The next page is the "Living As Disciples Through the Week" page. First there is a section for the student to write how has God blessed them that week with the intention of becoming more aware of Jesus' presence in their lives and how He is always offering us grace/gifts. The second part of the "Living As Disciples Through the Week" page is "What am I going to pray for at Mass next Sunday?" We are all called to bring the needs of our lives and the world to God.

The last two pages for the week, is basically the notebook for Religious Education. We will be using the Faith and Life series, being made available online through My Catholic Faith Delivered. These pages are organized around the same Know - Wonder - Act format as used for the Sunday Mass readings. As the student watches each lesson online, they write their notes in the Know section, any questions and reactions they have to what was in the lesson in the Wonder section, and finally how they think they can apply the lesson to their lives that week in the Act section.

Finally, we have published on the parish website, on the Religious Education page (<http://www.resurrection2.org/religious-education>) a brief survey that asks about the best days and times for religious education, and whether we should group the children in a primary and middle school format, or keep the "Angels" and "Saints" format of two sessions, each with classes for K-8. A few of you have already completed the survey; thank you. I ask the other parents to also go online and complete the survey.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

Fourth Sunday of Easter - John 10: 1-10

Good Shepherd Sunday

Jesus, I pray I follow your voice

Why do they call Jesus the Good Shepherd? Look at his face in the image, do you see the love on his face for this "found sheep"? Do you know shepherds have hundreds of sheep to care for but when one gets separated from him. He is out there looking searching until the one is found. That is how Jesus cares for us. When we miss Mass, do terrible things to others, steal or are nasty and unforgiving he is there to forgive us and begging us to come home and follow his ways.

Jesus calls each of us by name. He is saying that each of us is unique and loved for ourselves. He does not treat us as a heard, or a big, anonymous group. We each have a name and identity and God knows who each of us is. It is why we celebrate our Baptism with such joy because we become children of God and receive our Christian name.

The sheep who follows Jesus will not follow the voice of the stranger because they do not recognize it. In our lives there are many strangers. Not just people we do not know but sometimes even people we do know who try to lead us away from our Shepherd.

Adult: Jesus, I pray I follow your voice. The voice that is goodness and will help me to follow your ways and yes, "even your rules".

Child: If I learn to hear the voice of goodnessyour voice! I know I will be following the best life possible.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

A note from your spiritually-adopted baby, 1 month old

Thank you for adopting me! Can you believe I am already one month old? I've grown to 10,000 times the size I was the day I began life. My heart started beating on Day 18! Isn't that amazing? I can't wait for Mommy and Daddy to hear my heartbeat. I hope they'll be excited, but I don't think they were expecting me, so maybe they'll be scared. Please keep praying. Pray that my parents won't feel too scared. Thank you for your prayers!

Love, your spiritually-adopted baby

Ever day over 4000 babies are killed by abortion. Say this prayer every day for nine months to save a baby's life!

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

(Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

Celebrating Marriage

As a way of celebrating marital fidelity, we publish wedding anniversaries each month. If you are celebrating a wedding anniversary of 5, 10, 15, etc....you are invited to send your name, anniversary year and date of marriage by email to: Resurrection2@comcast.net, or submit it in writing to the office by the 10th of the month before.

Congratulations to Jerry & Eileen Boyle celebrating their 50th Anniversary on May 6th!!

Missing Pots

Last weekend, before the 10:00 Mass, some pots and flowers were placed outside Holy Name Church with the hopes that they could be attended to right after the Mass. Unfortunately, they must have been perceived as giveaways, and they were taken...which included 3 of our good pots that the environment committee uses. If the person who took the pots could please return them (2 matching pots and 1 large pot) we would appreciate it! Thank you!!

Mother's Day Spiritual Bouquet

On Mother's Day, May 14, remember your mother in a Novena of Masses. Anyone receiving envelope packs in the mail, you will have a special envelope for this. Simply write the names of the Mothers you would like to be remembered in the Novena. For anyone not receiving envelope packs, you may take an card from the tables in the hall. Please turn your intentions in to the office, or drop in the collection basket, before Thursday, May 11.

Mother's Day

May 14th is only a week away. The Holy Name Society of Resurrection Parish will be offering white and red carnation flowers at $2 each before and after all masses. This is a wonderful time to honor your mother. Red for living and White for her soul in triumph with Almighty God. When you honor her, you honor our spiritual Mother Mary also. Be proud to wear this symbol to Holy Communion in honor of your mother. Honor her this day and in memory of the precious gift God has given us.

Thank You

We would like to thank Lisa & Dominic Favieri for their many years of dedicated years of service in handling of the Baptism formation classes as needed. Lisa & Dominic showed what their faith is all about, in helping with our Baptism prep and now are helping our parish in other areas to run as smoothly as possible. Their dedication to this work with undying dedication was greatly appreciated and done very well. May God always Bless you and your entire family! I would also like to thank Donna Malinowski for stepping up and assuming these duties for the foreseeable future. I also ask our parishioners to please give Donna your support.

DRIVEWAY CONSTRUCTION AT HOLY NAME

Construction on both driveway entrances at the Holy Name Church has begun. We are working on repairing one at a time, leaving the other driveway and the dirt driveway open for access. Catechist & Parents

Teaching Your Children

Confirmation is one of the three Sacraments of initiation into the Catholic Church (together with Baptism and Holy Communion).

This special anointing given by the bishop or priest has the effect of increasing, deepening, and strengthening the sanctifying grace of God given to us at our baptism; while baptism removes from our souls the stain of original sin, Confirmation pours into our souls

the power of the Holy Spirit and his seven gifts – just like the Apostles received at Pentecost.

Roots us more deeply in the divine filiation [being adopted as sons and daughters of God the Father] which makes us cry out, “Abba! Father!”

Unites us more firmly to Jesus Christ. Increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us (see the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit). Renders our bond with the Church [the Body of Christ] more perfect.

Gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross.

For those soon to be Confirmed, these five things are points of reflection to better prepare for the receiving of such a marvelous gift of the Holy Spirit. For those who have already been Confirmed, this list can inspire the following question in our hearts:
Am I fully living according to the grace of the Holy Spirit bestowed on me at my Confirmation?
