From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Making a Pilgrimage without Leaving Home"

As some of you know, I had planned to lead a pilgrimage next October to both Lourdes and Fatima, in part, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Our Lady's appearances at Fatima. Unfortunately, not enough people signed up, so I had to cancel the trip (and arranged for those that did sign up, to go with another group).

It might turn out to be for the best because my doctor told me this week that my knees are in bad shape. Imagine this, a doctor told me to stop doing so much walking. I had been trying to walk for 60-90 minutes each day. For me, walking was not just for exercise (which I clearly need) but it was also a spiritual practice. I would pray my Rosary as I walked, and I had just gotten to praying all 20 decades of the Rosary (Joyful, Luminous, Sorrowful, and Glorious Mysteries) during my walks. It was as if I was walking with Jesus, through His life.

The Church is often described as being a pilgrim Church. It is a reminder that we are suppose to be following Jesus, walking where He walks, and that we are just passing through this world for our true home is in Heaven. This is one of the reasons why a pilgrimage has been an ancient spiritual practice for Christians. In Europe there are several famous pilgrimage routes that have been traveled by the Faithful for centuries. The most famous Christian pilgrimage destinations include Rome, the Holy Land, and St. James Compostela (a.k.a. Camino de Santiago).

The practice of a pilgrimage is common in other religions as well. The Jewish People were expected to make a pilgrimage to the Temple in Jerusalem several times each year. One of the tenets of Islam is for the believer to make a pilgrimage to Mecca sometime in their life.

There is a spirituality in the practice of making a pilgrimage. First, it is a journey to a holy place, but it is not merely for vacation. The purpose of the trip is to encounter God, and through the encounter to learn more about oneself. Secondly, the pilgrimage should lead to the transformation of the pilgrim. In other words, the person making the pilgrimage should come back a different person than they were before they went. A pilgrimage is suppose to be difficult. Sometimes it is physically, psychologically, financially, or spiritually challenging. To go on pilgrimage is to welcome these difficulties as an opportunity to look more like Jesus. Finally, a pilgrimage requires disconnecting from the routine. Pilgrims leave work, friends, responsibilities, and media behind for a time.

In addition to wanting to go to Lourdes and Fatima this year as a pilgrimage, a friend of mine asked me if I would join her and her husband in 3 years when they plan to walk the Camino de Santiago; something I have always wanted to do. It looks like my knees might make me back out of that pilgrimage as well.

So, what is an eager pilgrim with bad knees to do? One option, from the Middle Ages and which I did during my retreat this year is to walk a labyrinth. Think of the maze in that one Harry Potter movie (Goblet of Fire, I think). It was very meditative, but I would need to build one here to do it regularly. We have the land at the Holy Name site, so that is a possibility. However, I was thinking of another possibility -- a book club.

Specifically, I am inviting you to join me in reading, Hinds Feet in High Places, by Hannah Hurnard. It is a spiritual allegory about a young woman's pilgrimage to the "High Places" where the "Chief Shepherd" lives. We can join "Much-Afraid" (the young woman) as she journeys with her two companions, "Sorrow" and "Suffering", as they travel to see Jesus. I know that we have at least one copy of the book in the parish library, and it can be ordered from Amazon for about $7.50 (they even have a Kindle version for $7). I am proposing that we meet on Mondays at 12:30 PM, starting on June 19. We will bring our own lunches, and we will meet for about an hour. I don't know how many weeks we will meet; until we finish the book. I suggest that anyone who is interested call or stop by the office to sign up, just to give me an idea of how many people to expect so I know where we should have it. Plan to have the first chapter read for the first meeting. I hope that you join me for this "stay-at-home" pilgrimage.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

Pentecost Sunday

John 20: 19-23

Today is Pentecost Sunday, feast of the Holy Spirit and the end of the Easter Season.

On Monday we begin the long season of Ordinary Time.

“Peace be with you.” What a wonderful gift! This Gospel connects peace with forgiveness. At our Baptism and again at our Confirmation we are filled with the life and gifts of the Holy Spirit. So, our task is to lead a Spirit-filled life. While this life is sometimes challenging, remind yourself that with the help of the Holy Spirit, all things are possible. May we be worthy of this great gift and able to fulfill the mission Christ entrusted to us.

Poor disciples they were locked behind closed doors and filled with fear! They had seen what happened to Jesus their leader and they were afraid. Then suddenly Jesus was among them! Jesus speaks the best words of comfort to them! “Peace be with you!” Jesus shared with them God’s peace, a peace the world cannot give, but they were still afraid! Jesus then shows them his hands and his side!. When the disciples saw this they rejoiced! Jesus breathed on them and shared with them the Holy Spirit of God!

Adult: Breath is a wonderful image for the Spirit. You cannot see it but it has great strength and at times it can be calming!

Child: Jesus the world is so difficult. People can be so mean and so uncaring! I need your peace.

K of C Golf Outing

In an effort to assist local students with the high cost of starting their college careers and to support and encourage our local school children, the Knights of Columbus administer an Educational Assistance Program. In years past with funds from our Educational Assistance Program:

We have given numerous monetary awards to selected graduating high school seniors and graduating students from local grade and middle schools. We have also used some of the proceeds of the Golf Tournament to help defray our Christmas Baskets' endeavor. In 2016, our council gave out 225 baskets of food and toys to less fortunate families in our community at a cost of $14,000.

To provide the funds necessary for these programs, we conduct an annual golf outing; this year's outing will be held at Ron Jaworski's Ramblewood Country Club, 200 Country Club Pkwy, Mt. Laurel, NJ. On June 30th...sign up as an individual or organize a foursome! Cost is $95.00 for a round of golf and luncheon and prizes.

Come out and have a lot of fun with friends and support our program; please telephone Dick Brown at (856) 630-1792 (email: rbrown194444@gmail.com) for tickets or Rich Layton at (856) 313-5804. Thank you so much for your kind consideration and generosity!

Sincerely,
Richard Brown, PGK

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation Program

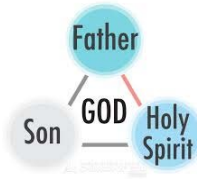

June 4, 2017 - Pentecost Sunday

Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." Psalm 104

Resurrection Parish Faith Formation

What does The Trinity tell Us About God?

God is Father. The fact that God is Father means that he is the Creator. All things begin with him. God's Fatherhood also means that he protects and cares for his creation, especially human beings. Father is a good word for God, but it's not the perfect word. For one thing, it brings to mind earthly fathers. For another, it may suggest that God is male. God is Father, but he isn't a man. We could call God mother too, because mothers as well as fathers give us life and protect and care for us but God is neither male nor female. God is God, beyond gender, race or any other human category.

God is Son. The Father has a Son, Jesus, who lived two thousand years ago. Jesus is the most important way we know about God. Jesus shows God to be merciful, loving, generous and just. He loves us so much he died for us.

God is Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the active presence of God in our lives. The Spirit proceeds from the Father and Son. That is, the Spirit is an expression of their love. Through the Spirit, God is living and active in the world.

So what is God like? Think about the people in your life what do you need from them. Every day you need protection, care and support from them.

Parents and Catechists

Guiding Our Children

One of many Reasons To Go To Mass!

The Code of Canon Law, the legal code of Christ's Church, states:

On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to assist at Mass. They are also to abstain from such work or business that would inhibit the worship to be given to God, the joy proper to the Lord's Day, or the due relaxation of mind and body.

The obligation of assisting at Mass is satisfied wherever Mass is celebrated in a Catholic rite either on a holy day itself or on the evening of the previous day. (Can 1247, 1248)

Both the code of Canon Law and the Catechism clearly state the obligation. There was some general teaching prior to Vatican II that one had to be present for the offertory through reception of Holy Communion to fulfill the obligation. However this is not a part of the canon and the faithful are to participate in the complete Mass in order to fulfill the Sunday obligation.

Some consider the formal language of the Catechism and Canon Law to be somewhat inaccessible, or others may read the Catechism and rebuke what is said simply because they think there are "too many rules." Of course, rules are in place for a reason - even when it comes to driving, where the seemingly mundane rule of staying inside the painted lines has an enormous effect. So we can easily acknowledge that the rules about something so much more important - our faith - were not thrown together randomly, but have great meaning. Beyond the precept itself, we can also look at why it is so critical, and better understand the importance of participating in Mass every Sunday.
