From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Welcome Our New Director of Evangelization & Discipleship Formation"

Come July 1, we will be welcoming Rich Scanlon as our new Director of Evangelization & Discipleship Formation. This is a new position for our parish, replacing the position of Director of Faith Formation. Rich's responsibilities will include implementing our new Religious Education program, developing new Adult Faith Formation programs, supervising our RCIA and Baptismal preparation teams, and eventually developing a plan to reach out to fallen away Catholics and to non-Catholics in our community.

Rich has two master's degrees; one in theology and the other in sports psychology. He has worked in a variety of ministry settings, including Christendom College, where he was part of the team that revised the "Faith and Life" curriculum which we will be using in Religious Education, and for the past four years he has taught theology and been a dean at a Catholic high school in Ave Maria, FL. He has also been a football coach, and both the high school and college level, for about 20 years.

He is originally from Philadelphia (yes, he is an Eagles, Phillies, and Flyers fan), so this will be something of a homecoming. His wife, Laura, is from St. Cloud, MN. They have four children; Dominic (13), Isaiah (10), Gabriel (7), and Maria (4). I know that we will all offer them a warm welcome, and whatever assistance we can as they settle into our community.

This also means that we will be saying goodbye to Pat Brooks, who has been our Director of Faith Formation for the past 10 years. Pat has put a lot of love, not only into our Religious Education program, but into all of your children. I know that she will miss so many of you, and will be missed. I wish her the best in her future, and thank her for her service to the parish.

Some have asked why are we making these changes in our Religious Education program. The simple truth is that what we have been doing has not been achieving the results we desire. It's my desire, and that of the our wonderfully dedicated catechists, to pass on the Catholic Faith to the next generation. The current method has been failing to do that.

Since I have arrived at Resurrection, I asked that we administer the Assessment of Catholic Religious Education (ACRE) test to our 5th and 8th graders. It is a nationally standardized assessment of both knowledge of the Faith (following the guidelines set up by the USCCB) and religious practices. The ACRE ranks students as "Advanced," "Proficient," or "Needs Improvement." None of our Religious Education students achieved the "Advanced" rank and less than 10% achieved the "Proficient" rank. Over 90% of our students were at the "Needs Improvement."

As a former college professor, who taught educational assessment, I know that we cannot use just one measure, but there are other indications that we have not been doing a good enough job at teaching the faith to our children. The Bishop told me that the last time he was here to do Confirmations, he was very disappointed in our confirmandi's knowledge of the Faith.

It would be unfair to lay all the responsibility for this on our catechists. After all, they only work with the students about 4 hours per month. As I said before, our catechists are amazingly dedicated and have the best intentions for passing on the Faith to our children. We now have to give them the tools to do what their hearts desire. The Diocese of Trenton uses the same online service, "My Catholic Faith Delivered," to provide all the content for Level I Catechist Certification. It costs $90, and it takes about a year, working at one's own pace, to complete the coursework. After a person successfully completes the work in a year, the Diocese reimburses the person $45, so half the cost. I have decided that the parish will pay the other half of the cost, so we will be encouraging all of our catechists to sign up to take the coursework for the Level I Catechist Certification. We will also host a workshop, run by the Diocesan Office of Evangelization and Catechesis, that teaches more of the practical skills of teaching Religious Education (e.g., classroom management, how to lead discussions and activities, etc.). As we implement this new curriculum and methodology, Mr. Scanlon and I will plan to meet through the year with our catechists to facilitate mutual coaching and the sharing of best practices. So we will be doing what we can to beef up things on this end.

However, parents also have to accept responsibility as well. The Church teachings that parents have the primary responsibility for teaching the Faith to their children. At their child's baptism, parents promise before God to raise their children in the Faith, and the primary way to do that is by witnessing the Faith by their acts, especially weekly Mass attendance. Attending Mass on Sunday is a serious obligation, and missing Mass on Sunday -- without a serious reason -- is a mortal sin. I will say it plain; if you die with a mortal sin on your soul, you go to hell.

We average over 30% absenteeism at Religious Education, and even higher than that at Sunday Mass. Our ushers take a count at each Mass, and weekends when there is no Religious Education, the Mass attendance is very low. We will be having a strict attendance policy for Religious Education next year, and we will be using the "Disciple's Journal" as a way to check on Mass attendance. There will be pre- and post-tests for each chapter, and unit tests, all to measure accountability as well as progress in the material. Just like "reading, writing, and arithmetic" failure in religious education will mean that the material will need to be retaken, and children will have to be properly prepared before they can receive the sacraments of Reconciliation, Communion, and Confirmation.

Very few parents responded to the survey concerning the Religious Education program, and many who did basically said they just want to keep things the same. We cannot keep things the same, not if we take seriously the responsibility to pass on the faith to our children. The most common reason given for keeping it as it is was "it gives us a reason to go to Mass on Sunday." This is unacceptable. You should be going to Mass every Sunday, no matter when we have Religious Education.

Looking at the other parishes in the area, especially those in our cohort, here is our plan for Religious Education for next year. Students in kindergarten through 4th grade will have Religious Education on Sundays after the 10 AM Mass; from 11:15 AM until 12:30 PM. Students in grades 5-8 will meet on Wednesdays, from 6:45 PM until 8 PM. Please note; this will be EVERY WEEK.

The parishes in Cohort 1(Corpus Christi, Jesus the Good Shepherd, and Resurrection) have agreed to accept students from any of the Cohort parishes. Corpus Christi has their Religious Education on Tuesdays from 6 PM to 7:15 PM. Jesus the Good Shepherd has their older children (I think it is also 5th - 8th grade) on Mondays from 7:15 PM to 8:45 PM, and their younger children on Tuesdays from 4:15 PM to 5:45 PM.

I anticipate complaints. That's all right. I appreciate the fact that families are busy; I am one of four children, all within 6 years of each other, so my family was also very busy growing up (both of my parents also worked outside the home). However, Religious Education was a priority in my family, and it must be a priority in all our families. Sports, scouting, theater, cheerleading, dance and all the other activities that children are involved in are great and help build strong characters and values. However, none of those things lead to Eternal Life. Only Jesus Christ leads to Eternal Life. To share in that Eternal Life we must know, love and serve Christ Jesus in this life, and in that order. Everything else is passing away.

Reflect on the Word of Jesus Christ

June 11, 2017

Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity

John 3: 16-18

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. In this we are reminded how much God loves us. That through the sacrifice and Resurrection of Jesus Christ we can have everlasting life.

Think about someone you love, like family, how do you feel about them inside? What would you do to show that person your love? Is there a limit to what you would do for them? Of course not!

In today’s Gospel we hear that God loved his Son Jesus very much but God also loved us just as much. There is nothing God wouldn’t have done to create a place for us with him forever. This is a great love. It is a truth that gives us great joy and gratitude. However we do not always live up to this love, God did not discard us but gave us his Son to help us change for the better.

*1 Father
1 Son
+ 1 Holy Spirit
= 1 GOD*

What must we do in order to respond to this great love that God has for us and shows us through Jesus? We must believe, really believe. Not just say it but show our belief by the words we say and the actions we take. We must look at the life of Jesus to believe in him means we must also be like him!

Adult: I will go to Reconciliation to put me back on the right track and receive the Eucharist so that I can be more like Jesus.

Child: Jesus, I need to be closer to you and stop sinning. I want to live as Jesus did.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

A note from your spiritually-adopted baby, 2 months old

I'm two months old! Now I'm called a fetus—that means “little one.” Mommy and Daddy weren't expecting a little one so I think they're nervous. Can you pray that the doctor will take a picture of me and show Mommy and Daddy? If they could see my little face or see me sucking my thumb right now, then they could realize that I REALLY am real. Some people think that when babies are this tiny (I'm only about 2 inches long) that we're just a blob of tissue, but I'm REAL! Doctors can even record my brain waves right now.

Pray that Mommy and Daddy get a chance to learn all about me and how much I've grown. Thank you for your prayers!

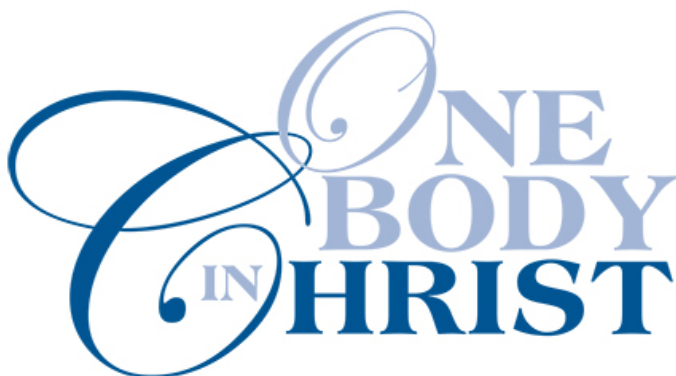

Love, your spiritually-adopted baby

Ever day over 4000 babies are killed by abortion. Say this prayer every day for nine months to save a baby's life!

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

(Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

K of C Golf Outing

In an effort to assist local students with the high cost of starting their college careers and to support and encourage our local school children, the Knights of Columbus administer an Educational Assistance Program. In years past with funds from our Educational Assistance Program:

We have given numerous monetary awards to selected graduating high school seniors and graduating students from local grade and middle schools. We have also used some of the proceeds of the Golf Tournament to help defray our Christmas Baskets' endeavor. In 2016, our council gave out 225 baskets of food and toys to less fortunate families in our community at a cost of $14,000.

To provide the funds necessary for these programs, we conduct an annual golf outing; this year's outing will be held at Ron Jaworski's Ramblewood Country Club, 200 Country Club Pkwy, Mt. Laurel, NJ. On June 30th...sign up as an individual or organize a foursome! Cost is $95.00 for a round of golf and luncheon and prizes.

Come out and have a lot of fun with friends and support our program; please telephone Dick Brown at (856) 630-1792 (email:) rbrown194444@gmail.com for tickets or Rich Layton at (856) 313-5804. Thank you so much for your kind consideration and generosity!

Parents and Catechists

Guiding Our Children

Your Family "should be" all about Jesus!

As believers and parents, there's nothing we want more than to see our kids fall in love with Jesus. But, at the same time, many of us feel inadequate.

What if we somehow get it wrong? Even the simple task of teaching children to pray can leave us wondering if we are "doing it right."

Part of the issue, I believe is that prayer itself is a mystery – it is at once both simple and difficult. Having taught our toddlers to pray simply, "Thank you, Jesus, for my family," just before nodding off to sleep, we crouch alongside his bed watching him and wonder, Is that it? Is that enough? At the same time though, we hesitate to impose lengthy prayer times on school-age children, for fear they will disengage.

Perhaps it will help to remember that prayer is primarily about our relationship with Jesus, Mary and the Saints. Let the way you pray with your family grow. Be creative, pray in different places, pray for a family in need..... just use your imagination.

When just starting out in family prayer. Don't fret about "getting prayer right." Just set yourself the simple goal of always trying to let your love and excitement for Christ shine through whenever you pray with your child.
