From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Fathers: Priests of the Domestic Church"

To all the fathers in the parish I want to wish a happy Fathers' Day. I pray that it is a special day for you to spend with your family. For those of us whose fathers have passed away, today can be a time for remember our dads, especially in our prayers, but not merely for reminiscence sake. Rather, today we should call to mind all that we learned from our fathers, so that we can put those lessons into better practice in our lives.

I have always had an interest in fatherhood. My doctoral dissertation looked at society's changing attitudes towards fatherhood. Frankly, it seems that fatherhood is not often esteemed in society today. Think about how fathers are portrayed on TV; they are often absent -- whether physically or just emotionally/psychologically -- and often they are made to seem to be dope (think of Homer Simpson and Al Bundy).

Sadly, even in the Church, there has been a neglect on much writing on the spirituality of Christian Fatherhood. This started to change in the 1990s, spurred on by the Protestant Promise Keepers movement. There was a recognition that the crisis in the family, and in society, is often a crisis in fatherhood. We need strong fathers.

To be a strong Catholic Father men must first be good sons of God the Father. Children and wives need to see that dad/hubby has a deep, loving, personal relationship with God. How else will he be able to be an icon, a witness of God the Father to the members of his family?

To be a good Catholic Father, a man must also be a good Catholic Husband. As Christ loved His bride, the Church, so Christian husbands need to love their brides, and be willing to lay down their lives for their wives and children (see Ephesians 5).

Third, the father should love his children and see them as a precious treasure that God has given to him with the primary purpose of bringing these little ones to their ultimate destiny which is heaven. A child is a gift given to father and mother but with the primary purpose of the parents being ladders by which the children can climb to heaven. An authentic father first should provide for the spiritual need of the child. He should teach his child to pray as soon as possible.

This leads me to the title of this week's column, "Father: Priests of the Domestic Church." An excellent book on Catholic Fatherhood is The Father of the Family: A Christian Perspective by Clayton Barbeau. A book of classical spiritual wisdom, and practical insights, one chapter struck me as an important but not often recognized aspect of fatherhood, namely, that since the family is the domestic church, a father exercises the grace of the priesthood of all the baptized by being the priest in his particular domestic church. The priest of the home must accept the responsibility of living the Gospel by his words and actions. In a world filled with temptation and sin, living Gospel values can be challenging. It takes discipline and self-control to hone virtue and holiness within the family. As such, fathers should be the locus of order and life-giving authority in the home.

As the priests of the home, men are to offer their lives as a sacrifice for their children, lead family prayers, establish faith-based household rituals and customs, give blessings, and help their kids to love the Mass. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass should lead fathers to personal relationship with God, uniting him so closely to Christ that the Eucharist becomes the very soul and center of his spiritual and family life. "The father who participates in the Mass regularly gives to his children a far more convincing statement as to the importance of the Mass than all his words do" (p. 63).

Once again, Happy Fathers' Day to all the dads in the parish, and if you have not gotten dad his gift yet, consider getting him The Father of the Family: A Christian Perspective by Clayton Barbeau.

Hello! We're your Envelope Reminder Angels

We've been assigned to watch over you for the summer months. While you're enjoying the summer sun and activity, don't forget your parish here at home! Your help is still needed to meet current expenses.

If while on vacation you cannot contribute regularly, may I suggest you keep unused envelopes on hand and bring your contributions up to date upon your return!

May God bless you & keep you safe & well!!

From the Pastor's Desk

Next weekend is Pledge Sunday for the Annual Catholic Appeal in the Diocese of Trenton. Each year the Bishop seeks the support of all of the members of the diocese to further the work of our ministries. Each of us has a vital part in all we do in Christ's name, and each of us can share in all we do with a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our single Act of Faith propels the works of love that build up our Church. You make that happen with a generous gift to the ACA.

This year, Resurrection Parish's share of the goal is $65,000.

As the people of the Diocese of Trenton, you have an opportunity to help others see Christ working in our midst. I ask you to take a moment and truly reflect on any help you can give. We truly need everyone to participate. This year we again are striving to reach our goal of $7 million.

I am always grateful and moved by the level of support you give to our parish. I thank you for this support, and may God continue to bless you and your family.

Fr. J C Garrett

Parish Calendar of Events

PARISH CALENDAR 2017-18

It's that time of year where we requesting your calendars of events for the Resurrection Parish Calendar 2017-18. Leaders/Presidents from each group, ministry, club and organization are ask to submit their calendar of events, meetings and building usage for the months of September 1, 2017 to August 31, 2018. When submitting your calendars please include your name, phone number and an email address. The deadline for calendars to be submitted is August 20, 2017. You can email your calendars to parishoffice@resurrection2.org. I will notified you if any conflicts arise. If during the year you cancel an event please notify me as soon as possible at 461-6555 or at the above email address. Thank you in advance for your cooperation! Trish Haran

Parish Counseling Services

Through a joint effort of the Diocese of Trenton and Catholic Charities, licensed professional counselors are available to help parishioners with difficult issues that interfere with day-to-day functioning. This service can be accessed by contacting Fr. JC who will provide additional information and a referral. The fee is $75 per session. If needed, financial assistance for short term counseling (maximum of 6 sessions) is available through the Diocese of Trenton Parish Counseling Services.

Votive Candles

Votive Candles "In Memory of" or for a "Special Intention" or "In Thanksgiving" are available at both our St. Casimir and Holy Name locations. At St. Casimir, we have the Lamp of Remembrance and the Lamp of Devotion. At Holy Name, we have the Tabernacle Votive and the Adoration Chapel Votive. The intention goes from Sunday to Saturday. A stipend of $10 is requested and cards are available to notify an individual, or the family of the deceased, if applicable.

K of C Golf Outing

In an effort to assist local students with the high cost of starting their college careers and to support and encourage our local school children, the Knights of Columbus administer an Educational Assistance Program. In years past with funds from our Educational Assistance Program:

We have given numerous monetary awards to selected graduating high school seniors and graduating students from local grade and middle schools. We have also used some of the proceeds of the Golf Tournament to help defray our Christmas Baskets' endeavor. In 2016, our council gave out 225 baskets of food and toys to less fortunate families in our community at a cost of $14,000.

To provide the funds necessary for these programs, we conduct an annual golf outing; this year's outing will be held at Ron Jaworski's Ramblewood Country Club, 200 Country Club Pkwy, Mt. Laurel, NJ. On June 30th...sign up as an individual or organize a foursome! Cost is $95.00 for a round of golf and luncheon and prizes.

Come out and have a lot of fun with friends and support our program; please telephone Dick Brown at (856) 630-1792 (email:) rbrown194444@gmail.com for tickets or Rich Layton at (856) 313-5804. Thank you so much for your kind consideration and generosity!
Sincerely,
Richard Brown, PGK
