From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Developing the 'Spirit of the Poor'"

Shortly after I first arrived here at Resurrection Parish, the president of our St. Vincent de Paul Society approached me. She told me that they were running a little low on funds, and wanted to know if they could make an appeal at the weekend Masses. Since the feast of St. Vincent de Paul (September 27) was close, I told them they could do it the weekend before. In fact, I told them that we would make it an annual appeal, the weekend closest to the feast of St. Vincent de Paul. This year it is going to be this weekend.

As I am sure that you know, the St. Vincent de Paul Society is dedicated to helping the poor; those that Pope Francis refers to as being on the margin. Whether it is with food, clothing, assistance in paying utilities or rent, the St. Vincent de Paul Society does an excellent job at not simply giving those in need a hand out, but more importantly a hand up.

Recently I learned a bit more about St. Vincent de Paul. On the recent Diocesan Priests Convocation, Fr. Marty McGeough, CM gave a series of talks on "What Does it Take to Work with the Poor." Fr. Marty is a member of the Congregation of the Missions which was founded by St. Vincent; hence are better known as the Vincentians. While for most of his priesthood Fr. Marty has worked in parishes, for the past five-plus years he has been the Diocesan Director of Jail and Prison Ministry. So while his examples drew from his work in the prisons, the lessons apply to all of us, no matter what ministry and apostolate we are engaged in.

His first reflection focused on "Blessed are those who have the spirit of the poor." That is not the typical way we translate that Beatitude in English, but it probably is closer to what Jesus said. What is the "spirit of the poor"? Basically it is recognizing that our life is entirely dependent on our relationship with God our Father. Think about it; this is how Jesus lived his life. Jesus frequently withdrew to a quiet place to spend long hours with his Father in prayer, and on many occasions Jesus would say that he only did the work that his Father gave him to do, and only said the words that his Father told him to speak.

The poor are often keenly aware of their dependence on others, especially God for their survival. Whether it is due to personal illness, personal circumstances, or conditions of society, there are always people living on the fringe of society, unable to take care of themselves. It would be easy to say that they are lazy or crazy, but that would not be fair to say, and certainly not Christian.

Fr. Marty surprised me when he mentioned that St. Vincent de Paul had to develop this "spirit of the poor" attitude. For the first 10 years of his priesthood, St. Vincent gave little thought to the poor. In fact, he was more concerned about getting assigned to a wealthy parish so that he could put enough money aside so that he could retire comfortably in the country. Two things started to cause him to change his perspective, allowing him to develop a "spirit of the poor."

First, for seven years he was falsely accused of stealing from a judge. Apparently he was at a social event at the judge's house when something valuable went missing. The judge was convinced that it was Fr. Vincent who took it, and while he could not prove it, for the next seven years the judge took every occasion to publicly accuse Fr. Vincent of the theft. Fr. Vincent could do nothing to stop the accusations besides denying it, but you can only do that for so long. Fr. Vincent realized that there was nothing he could do to defend himself, and that he would need to rely on the grace of God. After seven years, a man was caught stealing in another province of France, and while being interrogated by the police he not only confessed to the current robbery, but also of stealing from the judge seven years earlier. The judge was profoundly sorry for accusing Fr. Vincent for so long, but in many ways, the damage to his reputation was already done.

The second thing that helped St. Vincent develop a "spirit of the poor," was a relationship with a doctor. This doctor was plagued with extreme doubts about the Faith. St. Vincent tried to help convince the doctor of the truths of the Faith, but nothing he said seemed to help. Then, St. Vincent asked God to take the doctor's doubts away, and give them to him. This is exactly what God did; the doctor's doubts disappeared and he developed a very strong faith, meanwhile, St. Vincent suffered for years with severe doubts about the Faith. What answered St. Vincent's doubts was when he decided to dedicate his life to helping the poor. St. Vincent did not see it simply as his helping those in need. Rather, he went to the poor, to the people on the fringe, to be EVANGELIZED by them. It was through and in the poor that St. Vincent encountered Christ, and was given the gift of Faith.

This weekend, as you listen to the members of our St. Vincent de Paul Society ask for money, certainly be as generous as you can, but do something more. Ask yourself if you have the "spirit of the poor"? Do you recognize your dependence on God, or do you think that you really can take care of yourself and your loved ones all on your own? Perhaps you could use to be evangelized by the poor. I know that our St. Vincent de Paul Society would warmly welcome any assistance of time and talent, as well as treasure, that you could provide them.

Emergency Plan Training Session

The Diocese has asked all parishes to create an EMERGENCY PLAN for all types of emergency situations and train everyone in the event of an emergency. We have had a plan created for us by Kathy Devlin Brodowski, a retired Captain of the New Jersey State Police, former Security Chief of the Pemberton School District and Certified Protection Professional ASIS. Kathy worked and wrote our plan and will do the training session as a donation to our parish. The Training Session will be held on Thursday, October 19 at 7pm in Holy Name Church and should last about an hour. She will be available for questions after the session.

Who should attend this Training Session?

Employees, Deacons, Volunteers, Extraordinary Ministers, Lectors, Catechists, Group Leaders and Members and all parishioners that would like to know how to handle an emergency here at our locations. So please mark your calendar and plan to attend the important training session.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

A note from your spiritually-adopted baby, 6 months old

I'm six months old and 14 inches long! I can hear really well now . . . I can hear Mommy and Daddy's voices and I can hear music playing. Loud noises sometimes scare me, though. Mommy and Daddy get scared sometimes too. I think they're scared to let someone else take care of me. But I know that God will keep me safe no matter where He wants me to live. So please keep praying that they'll believe God when he whispers to them. Thank you!

Love, your spiritually-adopted baby

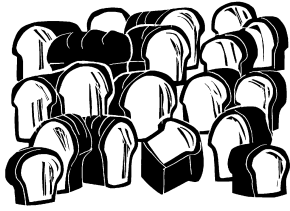

Ever day over 4000 babies are killed by abortion. Say this prayer every day for nine months to save a baby's life!

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

Jesus, Mary and Joseph. I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

(Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen)

Religious Education Classes are Underway

The first weekend of Religious Education classes began September 17th, which also happened to be Catechetical Sunday. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops chose this year's theme for catechetical Sunday to be "Living as Missionary Disciples." This is a wonderful opportunity to recognize our volunteer catechists and hall monitors for serving our Church. Please thank them for their willingness to positively impact our youth. Catechetical Sunday also serves as a reminder to each of us to reflect on our role of handing on the faith and witnessing to the Gospel, by virtue of our receiving the Sacrament of Baptism.

As the Bishops tell us, Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission.

This year's theme, "Living as Missionary Disciples," is in response to Pope Francis' call to all the baptized to grow closer to the Lord and to take up our role as missionary disciples. That call includes me and you. Our Pope is calling us this year to grow closer to the Lord and become active missionary disciples. How can we do this? One simple way is to become involved in our children's religious education formation. For those that have children in our program you can be with your children as they take their online course work each week. The key to our program is creating a deep, intimate relationship with Christ so that the students begin imitating him, something we call discipleship. This doesn't need to be limited to our children. This also includes parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, godparents and friends. We all desire this close relationship with Christ deep down inside. Many of us do not realize it consciously. But, it is in developing this relationship with Christ that should be the basis of our faith. Once that relationship is established then we cannot keep the Good News inside of us. We want to share it with others.

So, to begin "Living as Missionary Disciples," our focus in Religious Education is to establish a deep, intimate relationship with Christ that will grow into discipleship. It is only after the relationship is established that the theology makes sense.
