From Fr. JC Maximilian's Desk "Blessed are the Meek"

I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you for your generosity to the St. Vincent de Paul Society last weekend. As I write this, I do not have the number of how much was collected, but if past years are any indication, I know the amount will make a bit impact in the lives of so many people.

I mentioned that at this year's Diocesan Priests Convocation, Fr. Marty McGeough, CM -- a Vincentian priest -- gave the conferences. Last week, I summarized this first talk on "Developing the Spirit of the Poor." His second talk focused on another Beatitude: "Blessed are the Meek."

A lot of us have a difficult time with the idea of meekness. Too often we think that being meek means being soft, a floor mat that people walk across. None of us like to be conned or robbed. Just a month ago, here in the parish, we had a man who was trying to con people with a story about having a family member die (to some it was a son, to others a daughter, and yet to others his wife), asking them for money so he could get someplace. He even tried to break into the candle box money after saying he just wanted to light a candle for his loved one. So yes, there are liars and cheats in the world, but we cannot allow them to close our hearts to those who really are in need.

Meekness is a spirit of gentleness with the people we encounter who are in real need. It involves not reducing people to objects of "charity," but recognizing them as subjects, as children of God like ourselves. Yet meekness goes one further step; it looks beyond just the physical world to see the divine, the supernatural, in what and who is in front of us. We need to read Matthew 25:31-46 in this light; it is the passage on the Judgement of the Nations, where Jesus tells us that when we feed the hungry, give a drink to the thirsty, visit the sick, etc., we do it for HIM.

When we encounter those on the margins of society we need to learn to look beyond the surface labels, and see Christ. Ultimately we are called to serve Jesus Christ, so we must see Him in the people we help. When we take that perspective, we will worry less about being conned, lied to, and cheated, for we will be happy serving Christ and doing His will.

This is what the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society does. They are not dummies; they realize that they have probably given help to people who have lied about their need. They do their best to avoid that, but they rather err on the side of seeing Christ in the poor.

In setting up what would become the St. Vincent de Paul Society, St. Vincent realized that as a work of mercy, it was not just about feeding and clothing the poor. As he received more and more donations, he realized that he needed to organize the work. Our local conference does that, working as a team to help the most people with what they have.

St. Vincent also recognized that it was not just physical poverty that needs to be served. The spiritual poverty in people's lives is just important. We need to help awaken in people their sense of their spiritual poverty, to look beyond their worldly concerns, and see the needs of their souls.

Ultimately we need to trust in the power of God's Word, then meet people in meekness, so as to serve them in mercy.

Resurrection Parish Religious Education 2017-18

Kindergarten to 4th grade:

Sundays after attending the 10 AM Mass; from 11:15 AM until 12:30 PM

Grades 5 to 8:

Sundays from 8:30 to 9:45 AM. Grades 5 through 8 will end their Sunday sessions by attending 10:00 AM Mass.

Two benefits of the curriculum we are using this year in religious education are:

1. Sound teaching – our students will learn their faith
2. Establishing a deep intimate relationship with Christ leading to Discipleship. By using the flipped classroom method, class time can be focused on building a relationship through practical and hands on methods.

What exactly does it mean to establish a relationship with Christ? To most it seems abstract. Trying to establish a relationship with someone I can't see, feel or hear is not normal. However, once one begins a relationship with Jesus he/she will reap benefits such as joy, peace and a deep burning love. So, the following are some tips on where to begin.

First off, everyone can have a relationship with Christ. It is not reserved for the rich and holy. In fact, Christ died for the poor and sinners. He died for each one of us and he wants to have a relationship with each one of us. We can begin to have a relationship by doing two things. One, ask Jesus for a close, intimate relationship. It only takes 5 seconds per day to ask for this. Then we should sit in silence for a minute listening to Jesus respond. We most likely won't hear a vocal voice like we do when speaking to another person but we may feel a movement of the heart or be inspired by a holy thought. But, simply asking and listening for a response every day on a consistent basis can reap great benefits.

Two, ask yourself what constitutes a close relationship to you? How do you nurture these relationships? Most will answer that you need to speak and listen to the other person and get to know him/her. We can speak and listen to Jesus in prayer (see # one above). How do we get to know another person? We do this by spending time with him and getting to know him. Our religious education curriculum and flipped classroom model is focused on spending time with Jesus and getting to know him through the Bible, with a focus on the Gospels and through the Tradition of the Church, with a focus on the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

You can begin a relationship with Christ this week. Simply start by asking for this relationship and listening for a response in your heart. You can also participate in your child's online chapter(s) for the week.
